

Katie graduated from Villanova University and received her Event Planning Certificate from New York University. Katie's non-profit experience comes from her development, finance, and event roles at Susan G. Komen and The Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. She moved to Raleigh in 2015 from New Jersey with her husband, Kevin. In her free time, Katie enjoys spending time with her dogs, Rooney and Chester, playing board games with her husband, and cheering on Villanova basketball!