

Mary-Ann joined First Tee - Triangle in March 2022 with a focus on fundraising. She brings experience from her many years of leadership in the non-profit sector. Previously, she served as Executive Director of the Holt Brothers Foundation, which supports children who have a parent with cancer, as well as Executive Director of the Carolina Hurricanes Kids 'n Community Foundation. She is the co-founder of two non-profits, one focused on innovation and entrepreneurship in the Triangle region, the other on student success. She has also served on numerous non-profit boards, including Communities in School of Wake County, also focused on kids. Mary-Ann served for 10 years on the Raleigh City Council and currently serves as Raleigh Mayor. In her spare time, she enjoys golf, skiing, traveling, photography, Carolina Hurricanes hockey, and her grandchildren and two dogs, Jack Bauer and Charlie Brown.