

Grayson joined First Tee as a participant in the Greater Charleston chapter. She started playing golf through First Tee when she was 14 and joined her high school team in the same year. Through the First Tee ACE program, Grayson learned she had a passion for giving back and decided to continue coaching through college. Grayson became a level 1 certified First Tee coach in 2019 and earned her bachelor's in business management in 2020 at The University of South Carolina. She then earned her Master's in human resources in 2021 and became the Program Director for the First Tee Columbia chapter. She became a level 2 First tee coach in Spring of 2022 and enjoys coaching all age groups.

Grayson joined the First Tee Triangle in August of 2022 as the operations manager of the TriGolf facility. She is working through her LPGA teaching and club professional's certification and aspires to become a class A member of the LPGA. She believes that golf is a game for every age and skill level and wants to continue sharing her passion with those she meets.
