

Rebecca embarked on her exciting new role with First Tee - Triangle in February 2024, where she brings her extensive experience and knowledge from the First Tee network. Before joining the Triangle team, Rebecca made a significant impact in Philadelphia, PA, as the Assistant Executive Director at First Tee - Greater Philadelphia.

During her tenure in Philadelphia, Rebecca managed daily operations which included, program oversight, fundraising initiatives, and Human Resources. Additionally, she showcased her passion for golf through her roles as the head golf coach at Hallahan High School and as the Regional Director of Peggy Kirk Bell Tours in the Delaware Valley. Her deep commitment to golf and First Tee's vision was further demonstrated by achieving the status of Recognized First Tee Coach in 2013. Alongside of her sports related accomplishments, Rebecca holds a bachelor's degree in Business Management from University of Phoenix and has a background in client services, having acted as a Client Service Manager for a financial firm in Bala Cynwyd, PA.

Rebecca is accompanied in Raleigh with, her husband, Louis. Away from her professional life, she enjoys reading, staying active, and channeling her love for golf into supporting Louis as his dedicated caddy.
